

MRA Training Programs in Racine, WI

What Are Your Training Needs?

MRA is pleased to partner with Racine Area Manufacturers and Commerce to bring training to Racine.

Frontline Leadership Certificate Series* Begins 4/13/21

Motivation and Trust Building* 4/13/21

Learn how to meet the demands of leading work while doing work. This program offers you a practical understanding of basic leadership skills, work values, organizational responsibility, and trust and relationship building.

Communication Skills* 4/20/21

Become an excellent communicator with your team, peers, and managers. Master effective listening skills, enhance communication methods, and practice the ability to constructively give and receive feedback.

Effective Training Techniques* 4/27/21

Learn precise and practical methods to effectively train both new employees and experienced workers. Identify worker training needs and provide thorough, just-in-time, on-the-job training.

Resolving Conflict and Handling Difficult People Problems* 5/4/21

Learn to resolve conflict situations with those of your same communication style and those who are different. Get practical, tactful communication techniques to address conflict and influence others.

Frontline Leadership Series Capstone: Tools for Success* 5/11/21

This capstone course for the series integrates concepts from previous sessions to focus the leader on gaining cooperation, fostering teamwork, and building collaboration to meet organizational objectives.
